PUBLISHING POLICIES:

- 1) All legal notices must be pre-paid unless approved by publisher. An account past due more than 60 days or in excess of $500 is not eligible for a discretionary waiver of pre-payment until that account is paid in full.
- 2) Publisher has the right to decline to publish any material.
- 3) Publisher does not edit content or substance and is not responsible for errors made by the advertiser.
- 4) Price deviations in exceptional circumstances regarding individual notices are at the discretion of WCBA administrative staff in consultation with the legal journal editor and/or the Publisher’s authorized designee.
- 5) Placement and categorization of items submitted for publication: A.) Items which may have legal ramifications, such as those having publication deadlines, or which may be required to be published by law, statute, rule or Court Order, are considered a “legal notice,” which must be paid in advance (unless pre-payment is waived by publisher) by the advertising party, and for which advertiser will receive an Affidavit. B.) Items of general information or relevance to the profession or Bar Association that are not required by law, statute, rule, or Court Order to be published may be inserted in the format selected by, and at the sole discretion of, the Publisher. These notices will not receive an Affidavit and are generally published at no charge but may be published as a paid notice if advertiser chooses to do so. C.) Communications from the Court pertaining to the profession generally, as opposed to required publication notices, may be published at the discretion of Publisher as a “Notice to the Profession,” which will generally be deemed to be a public service at no charge.
